If you're drinking...

FOAMY RASPBERRY DAQUIRI

Imagine the freshness of a raspberry daquiri, but make it foamy... This drink is fruity, frothy and absolutey fantastic!

If you're not...

SAGE 75

When alcohol isn't the answer anymore... We added a sage twist to the classic French 75.

After dinner...

LIMONCELLO

Made only with the big lemons straight from Amalfi. 100% organic. Oh, and naughty as we are: we spiced the normal 20% of alcohol up to 30%. Just because we can. Enjoy!

WELCOME TO OUR WINE WORLD

Our wine list is a bit... different. In the best way. It's personal, handpicked, and filled with bottles that tell stories—some from Catalunya (our soft spot), others from across the old world, thanks to our trusted Amsterdam-based wine whisperers.

You'll also find natural wines here - but not the overly funky kind. Think character, craftsmanship, and just the right amount of adventure. Whether you're here for a casual glass or a bottle for the table (good call!), you're in for something special.

Bart has tasted every single wine on this list (someone had to do it), and only the most soulful, surprising, or downright delicious made the cut. And because not every wine comes with an easy-to-pronounce name, we've added a little twist of our own. Let us introduce you to 'The Show Stopper', 'The Valley of Fear', and 'The Not-So-Humble One'.

So go ahead—ask questions, take a leap, try something new. This list was made to be explored. Cheers!

Wine 101: Outsmart your table guests in just 3 minutes

Want to be armed with just enough ‘wine wisdom’ to fake your way through a tasting, or impress your table guests? Well, we’ve got you! Read this (or keep it close so you can cheat - we won’t sell you out ;)

Cheers to looking smart and sipping smarter!

- Sur Lie: Fancy French for “on the lees.” Translation: the wine gets cozy with its dead yeast cells for a while. Sounds gross, but it adds flavor, trust us. Think creamy, nutty vibes.
- Aging: Letting wine take a nap in barrels, tanks, or bottles so it matures. Younger wines are bold and loud; older wines are smooth and wise.
- Natural Wine: Made with less or no additives and more personality, because of the no-filtering and clarification. Often cloudy, funky, and a bit wild—but def not all at Barrica and Bar UYT - we only select the best ones.
- Aging on Wood: Aging wine in barrels adds flavors like vanilla, spice, and toast. Basically, a luxury spa treatment.
- Aging in Concrete Tanks: Wine’s hipster habitat. Adds minerality without oak flavors, and it’s great for showing off the wine’s raw, natural character.
- Foudre: A big wooden barrel (think XXL). It gives wine a gentler oak influence compared to smaller barrels.
- Fermentation: Yeast eats sugar, turns it into alcohol, and voilà—wine happens.
- Tannins: The reason your mouth feels dry after a sip of red wine. They add structure and aging potential.
- ‘New world / Old world wines’: New World (like the U.S., Australia) = bold, fruity wines. Old World (Europe) = elegant, earthy classics.
- Chambring: Fancy way of saying “let the wine warm up a bit.” No one likes an ice-cold red.
- Decanting: Pouring wine into a decanter to let it breathe. Helps flavors open up, especially with older reds. It’s like stretching before a big run.
- Maceration: Or ‘Brisat’ in Catalan. Leaving grape skins to chill with the juice. For reds, this is where the color and tannins come from.
- Clarification: removes matter using egg white (think: bacteria, dead yeast cells, tannins, proteins).
- Brut Nature: The driest of the dry if it comes to sparkling wine. No sugar added, no yeast added.

BUBBLES

PET-NAT

'Ancestral Montonega Pet-Nat', Catalonia

8 / 41.5

'The Chill One'

2022 Heretat Mascorrubi – Montonega

Bubbly the rustic way—this ancestral-style Montonega is like the Champagne of natural wines (but way more chill). Light and a little cloudy, it's the kind of bottle that fits any moment—from that first sip when the bar UYT opens, to your last toast before you get your bike. 11,6%

'Ancestral Rosat de Sumoll Pet-Nat', Catalonia

41.5

'The Pink Sister'

2023 Heretat Mascorrubi - Sumoll

Did you know the ancestral pet nat has a sister?? A pink one ;) Same ancestral sparkle, with a rosy twist. Shines with a soft salmon color, gentle bubbles, and just the right fruitiness., Pop it open at any time—this sister is always in the mood to celebrate. 11,6%

SPARKLING

'Hermós' Penedès, Catalonia

9.5 / 51

'The Not-Your-Ordinary-Bubble'

2020 Pardas - Xarel-lo (Tsja~re~lo), Sumoll

Only natural sugars and yeast - and that's what you call brut nature in all it's elegance. But don't be fooled: this isn't your ordinary sparkling wine—it's the refined beauty of the region in every bubble. Aged for a looong 36 months this one is worth the wait: dry and delightfully fruity, with intense aromas of apples and pears, and a looong finish. Order it and let Hermós bring a little sparkle to your glass. 12%

CAVA

CHAMPAGNE

Brut 'Authentic Meunier'

half • whole

37.5 / 70

Apollonis - Pinot Meunier

A name you might not know, but be surprised: this is simply just great champagne. Great as an appetiser, but will also fit perfectly with all your other dishes. An accessible one, rich in fruits, yet refreshing. With a little bit of sweet-bitter grapefruit. 12%

ROSÉ – ORANGE – SWEET

ROSÉ

‘L’abrunet Rosat’ Terra Alta, Catalonia

6 / 36

‘The Siesta in your glass’

2024 Frisach – Garnacha gris, blanca y tinto

The sassy Rosé. Or a Siesta in your Glass, like we like to call this one. Green almonds, a twist of orange, juicy like strawberries and red apple. 13%

‘Rose Sumoll’ Penedès, Catalonia

6.8 / 37

‘Our favorite!’

2023 Pardas - Sumoll

100% Sumoll, 100% not your average rosé. With it's bold red color and 24 hours of maceration, this one packs character. Juicy, fresh, a little wild—and dangerously easy to finish (especially in the sun, with friends). Don't say we didn't warn you. 13.5%

‘Pélous’ Cévennes

5.8 / 29

2022 Philippe Nüsswitz - Cinsault

Easy rosé, easy choice. Smells like lively red fruit. Crispy freshness and lively acidity. 12.5%

‘Inspiration Rosé’ Provence

41.5

2022 Château de Berne - Grenache Noir, Cinsault, Syrah, Merlot

A perfect example of Provence rosé. Fresh and expressive perfumes of strawberry, raspberry and lavender. Nice intense taste which is fresh and soft at the same time. 13%

ORANGE

‘Les Alifares’ Terra Alta, Catalonia

8.3 / 45

‘The Dark Night’

2022 Frisach – Garnacha Gris

Fermented with both skins and stems, which makes it tannin-rich, and that's rare for a white. Another fun fact: the winemaker calls this wine the result of “a dark night.”... This one charms by being fresh, but it's bold enough to impress your friends. 13%

SWEET

‘Simfonia en Dolç’ Priorat

9.5 / 40 (half)

2020 Sangenise i Vaqué – Garnacha, Cariñena

A sweet one (think: creamy and milky), but this one is made with red grapes, which is quite unusual. So we say: try this ‘Unusual Suspect’ ☺ 16,5%

‘Sauternes’ Bordeaux

8 / 32 (half)

2019 Chateau Haut Bergeron - Semillon

A world-famous sweet one, and the only Sauternes made on an island. A lot of botrytis (wine lovers: you know this is strange and yet so interesting) and creamy, milky, heavenly sweet. 13%

WHITE

SPAIN

‘Aspriu (Blanca)’ Penedès, Catalonia
‘The Wild One’

72

2017 Pardas – Xarel-lo (Tsja~rel~lo)

Oof, wild...this sounds intriguing..? And it is. Only 1.360 bottles exist—one of them could be yours! Made from 100% hand-picked Xarel-lo grapes (yes, they really put in the effort), Aspriu is a labor of love and precision and Pardas really proves that these grapes can age beautifully. From the 2017 vintage, it stands firm—nearly spicy—with a surprisingly light touch for its age. Bright acidity, subtle toast, mineral. This one is refined, and undeniably rare. One sip and you’ll understand. 12.5%

‘Basa’ Rueda

31

2023 Telmo Rodriguez - Verdejo

Slightly Higher in acidity, but balanced with notes of pear, melon and a hint of minerality. Easy-going, juicy, and fresh. You,Will,Just,Love,It. 13%

‘Blau Cru’ Penedès, Catalonia
‘The Future Icon’

45

2022 Pardas – Malvasia de Sitges

Okay, it might not be an icon yet, but our taste (okay and some smart wine lovers on the internet) tells us that this might be a future icon of the winery. So stay alert. This one is made from Malvasia—a grape as rare as it is tricky to cultivate. After 9 months of serious chilling on the lees, it is pale gold in color, has floral aromas that draw you in and keep you hooked. What makes it special? The acidity. Bright, clean, and perfectly balanced, it adds an unexpected twist, with notes of passion fruit in every sip. 13%

‘Crida Verd’ Penedès, Catalonia
‘The Quiet Rebel’

46.5

2018 Pardas – Macabeu

A bold experiment in true Pardas style—Crida Verd dares to let a blending grape take center stage. This 100% Macabeu reveals surprising character and elegance on its own. The quiet rebel of the cellar. 12%

‘Davila’ Rías Baixas

44

2022 Adegas Valminór - Albariño, Loureiro, Treixadura

Adegas is internationally famous for his wines. A yellow golden liquid, aromatically intense and complex. White flowers, tropical fruit, a touch of salt, and even some aromatic herbs. The minerals will race after you at the finish line. 12.5%

SPAIN

'Foradada' Terra Alta, Catalonia
'The Go-ahead-order-a-bottle'

41

2023 Frisach – Garnacha Blanca

Straight from the heart of the village, Foradada is not your average white wine—it's a Vino Brísat: longer skin contact, like a Chardonnay's stylish cousin, but with 100% Garnacha Blanca. With nearly a year aging and relaxing on the lees (sur lie, for the fancy folks), and you've got a wine that's unfiltered, unapologetic, and with autolytic notes (biscuits! brioche!), a silky mouthfeel and just enough freshness to keep you pouring glass after glass. So go ahead. The whole bottle, if you like. We never judge. 13.5%

'Pur Xarel·Lo' (Tsja~rel~lo), Penedès, Catalonia
'The Pure One'

8.7 / 45

2021 Pardas – Xarel·lo

No fancy name needed here—just pure Xarel·lo grape from the oldest vineyards of Pardas: they strongly believe in the power of this grape. What they say about these old vineyards: 'they have more roots than leaves and more clay and limestone than grapes'. Aged in French oak and concrete, it's fresh: zesty citrus and crisp green apple meets a touch of vanilla, with notes of toast, white flowers, and light minerality that might remind you of a beautifully oaked Albariño. 12.5%

'Rupestris' Penedès, Catalonia
'The loved one'

6.5 / 36

2023 Pardas – Xarel·lo (Tsja~rel~lo), Malvasia de Sitges

This is not a wine that shouts for attention—it doesn't need to. It's easy going, unpretentious, and proud of exactly what it is. The kind that everyone likes. But be aware: it's so charming, the bottle might be empty before you've even finished your glass. A blend of Xarel·lo and Malvasia de Sitges grapes: white florals, ripe apple, a whisper of honey, a touch of minerality. So pour generously, check your table guests for not drinking too fast, and enjoy. 12.0%

'L'abrunet Blanc' Terra Alta, Catalonia
'The Angel that dances on your tongue'

6.5 / 36

2024 Frisach, Garnacha Blanca

This one is like an angel dancing on your tongue...fresh with vibes of apple & pineapple. And there is even a hint of anise in there – fancy right? Dangerously easy to love. Just a heads up. 13.5%

WHITE

SPAIN

La Lambretta 'Priorat'
'Say Hello to Grandma'

43

2023 Gemma Miro - Muscat

This winemaker, Gemma, used to eat these Muscat grapes straight off the vine (45 year old vines) with her grandma. But now? She turns them into wine (as you should with grapes, but that's just our opinion..). With it's golden colour, floral aromas, and delicate citrus notes, La Lambretta surprises you. While Muscat might scream "sweet" in your mind, this wine is a sophisticated, floral beauty instead. Cheers to Grandma!

'Vernaxta' Terra Alta, Catalonia
'The Swimmer'

8.5 / 44

2023 Frisach – Garnacha Blanca

A Vino Briso (longer skin contact) masterpiece with 100% Grenache. What makes it special? After the first fermentation, it takes a big jump to splash around in both concrete tanks and wooden barrels. The concrete keeps it fresh and lively, while the barrels add a creamy depth and a long, satisfying finish. The result? A perfect balance between freshness and richness, with notes of ripe white fruits. This is a wine with stories to tell and layers to discover. Ready to dive in? 13.5%

ITALY

'Lulu' Carassai
'Are you DeLuLu??'

7.6 / 38.5

2021 Dianetti Vini – Passerina

These grapes are harvested by hand in the early mornings, immediately taken to the cellar and crushed. Leaving you with a special, crisp wine. Floral notes and a tasty aroma that will drive you crazy. Or 'absolutely Delulu' as we like to call it. 12,5%

'Ronco Calaj' Friuli

8.6 / 43

2023 Russolo - Pinot Grigio

Pinot Grigio boring? Not this one! The Pinot Grigio from Friuli is the best you can get. First you smell tones ripe fruit and passion fruit. And if you really try, some sage. A lively, fresh, and friendly taste. A real thirst-quencher. 12.5%

'Vignagiulia' (Vien~ja~joe~lia), Carassai

49

2021 Dianetti Vini – Pecorino

Full and refined. Its full-body mouth-feel and a properly brisk texture make it a dynamic wine with a deep and salty finish.

FRANCE

'Intensément' Bourgogne

9.7 / 49.5

2023 Baudouin Millet - Chablis (Chardonnay)

Are you someone who 'doesn't like Chardonnay'? Let this Chablis prove you wrong. A great wine from little Baudouin. Fully vinified and matured in stainless steel, classic Chablis with citrus fruit and an almost salty aftertaste where you feel a chalk line being drawn across your tongue, so to speak. Worth a try! 13%

'Saint Romain' Bourgogne

89

2022 Au Bas de Poillange - Chardonnay

Vin Naturel from the village of Saint Romain, located a little higher on the Cote than the famous Mersault. Made by Morgan and Pauline Truchtet. This one has a great balance between fruit, acidity and minerals. Yes, we are entering the premier league with this one. 13%

'Saint Veran' Bourgogne

48

2023 Alexis Pollier - Chardonnay

Alexis is a true wonder child, the prodigy winemaker from the 'Cote Maconnaise'. Biodynamically maintained vineyards for optimal health and ripeness of these grapes. Partly aged on wood. And all of that comes together in this beautiful chardonnay French style: exceptionally fresh with citrus notes, summery blossoms, and a small layer of honey on top. 13%

'Sancerre Chavignol' Loire

49

2022 Pierre Martin - Sauvignon Blanc

Sancerre, who doesn't want a wine from there? This is in the heart of it all, Chavignol! Fresh, chalk, citrus, white flowers, almonds and great minerals. Go on and order. 13.5%

'Taburnum' Rhône

88

2021 Les Vins de Vienne - Viognier

Abandoned vineyards. They exist. We don't understand why. And Les Vins de Vienne, the three top producers who combined their expertise to make this excellent wine on ancient grounds, didn't understand either. They made this pearl of ripe and exotic fruits, wood, a powerful start and a little bit of fattiness with a great balance. Chapeau! You won't regret this one. 14%

RED

SPAIN

'L'Abrunet Negre' Terra Alta, Catalonia

6.5 / 36

The Let's get this Dinner Party started'

2023 Frisach – Garnacha Tinto, Cariñena

A blend of Garnacha and Carignan that's got just the right mix of character and charm. The secret? Maceration! (Fancy word, but stay with us): a technique where grape skins soak in the juice, in cool concrete tanks, adding color, soft tannins, and a little magic. The result? A wine that's fresh and lively, but with just enough body to keep you coming back for more. Ideal to kick off your evening, and gets this dinner party started! PS: during summer, we pop this beauty in the fridge. 13.5%

'L'Anit' Terra Alta, Catalonia

10.5 / 55

'The Not-So-Humble One'

2022 Frisach – Cariñena

This one is not humble, as you can see, and it's not even apologising for it. Well, it's got good reasons. Crafted from the Cariñena grape and aged for 9 months in concrete (no wood here), L'Anit is as pure as it gets. The result? A complex nose with spicy hints and a subtle, almost iron-like edge that grabs your attention. Powerful yet approachable, seductive tannins and bold, fruity flavors. Sourced from vines over 80 years old, this is the winemaker's pièce de résistance—an absolute top wine. (So, okay, not so humble for a reason). 13.0%

'Aspriu (Tinto)' Penedès, Catalonia

74

'The Show Stopper'

2015 Pargas – Cabernet Franc

100% handpicked Cabernet Franc grapes, aged in French oak barrels, and only 1,676 bottles made—yes, it's that special. This 2015 vintage has earned a Parker rating of 94/100 (not too shabby, right?), and one sip tells you why. It bursts with intense black fruit flavors—think blackberry, blueberry, and blackcurrant—layered with hints of leather, smooth vanilla, and a subtle kick of pepper. Full-bodied. If you're looking for a show stopper, this is it. But don't wait too long—these babies will be gone soon. 14.0%

'Collita Roja' Penedès, Catalonia

52

'The Take-a-Deep-Breath'

2018 Pargas – Sumoll

Important message: this one needs to breathe before unlocking its potential. With its predecessor (2017) scoring 94 point by Robert Parker, now the 2018 is released. This is a wine that astonishes from the very first sip, with a fresh and fruity nose that unveils the youth and depth of its origin. 13.5%

‘Coranya’ Priorat, Catalonia

57

‘The one to share with only Really Good Friends’

2015 – Sangenise i vaqué – Cariñena, Garnacha Tinto

And we do mean real good friends (skip the acquaintances) because this isn’t just a wine to sip away mindlessly.

No, Coranya is where things get serious: a top 1% wine worldwide (2015 vintage) and crafted from vines over 45 years old. Ripe plum, smooth leather, and velvety tannins make every sip an experience worth savoring. Perfect for pairing with a long, meaningful conversation—or, of course, with Catalan food that matches its depth and soul. Coranya is made for moments that matter. With Real Good Friends. 15.0%

‘Clos Monlleo’ Priorat, Catalonia

‘The Real Deal’

2011 – Sangenise i vaqué – Cariñena, Garnacha Tinto

Cancel your plans—this is the one. Clos Monlleo isn’t here to play; it’s here to make an impression. Aged for 18 months in French oak, it’s all about intensity. Ripe red fruit, hints of mint, cedar, spices, and a touch of smoke—it’s the kind of wine you’ll keep tasting long after the last sip. But let’s be real: a wine like this isn’t meant to be over explained. It’s meant to be experienced. The Real Deal. It has been in the bottle for 14 years, so give this one some oxygen. And then: trust us, you’ll be talking about it for days. 15.0%

‘The Enjoy the Now’

2021 Sangenise i vaqué – Garnacha Tinto, Cariñena

Do you savor the moment, or does time sometimes slip away? We get it. That’s why Dara is here: a wine that’s ready right now—no aging required, no waiting needed.

Crafted from Grenache and Carignan, this bottle brings you a true taste of Priorat, one of Spain’s most iconic wine regions. Aged in both French oak (old and refined) and American oak (new and bold), it’s fruity, velvety, with smooth oak tones. So pour a glass and savor now—because the moment is yours. 14.0%

‘The Elixir of Life’

2022 Frisach – Garnacha Tinto, Garnacha Peluda, Garnacha Blanco, Cariñena

This beauty is a blend of the three Garnachas, made from vines that have seen over 65 years of sun, wind, and soil. The journey? A winter’s rest in concrete tanks followed by 12 months à foudre (=a massive wooden mega-tank). Expect a refined and perfectly balanced wine with a touch of spice, and a burst of fresh red fruit. The finish? Oh, it’s long—the kind that keeps you thinking about the next sip before you’ve even finished the first. Oh-so-satisfying: this one’s a must-try. 14.0%

‘The Wild Boar’

2022 Pardas – Sumoll

Named after the wild boars that run around like crazzzzy in this region, Sus Scrofa is a true reflection of its Catalan roots. Made from the native Sumoll grape—an under-the-radar variety that this winemaker has mastered like no other. Okay, we are on thin ice here, but we think: this one is somewhere between Pinot Noir and Nebbiolo: ripe red fruit, light on it’s feet, yet layered with just enough complexity to keep you guessing. With no oak to distract, the Sumoll shines through in its purest form. 12.5%

‘The Valley of Fear’

2022 Sangenise i vaqué – Cariñena, Garnacha Tinto

Okay, the name comes from the valley where it’s made in. But we have actual Fear of Running Out of this wine...And once you’ve tasted it, you’ll understand! This 2022 beauty is a true GEM—a stunning combination of Cariñena and Garnacha grapes, aged for 12 months in both French and American oak barrels. Rich black fruit flavors smashed into notes of old leather, bold, but with a perfect balance between power and finesse, and the depth of barrel aging in every sip. Don’t wait too long to order this one: you might really miss out. 15.0%

'Lanzaga' Rioja 58

2020 Telmo Rodríguez - Tempranillo

This wine is a bit of a rebellious one and we love that. Figs, blue berries, prunes, vanilla and tobacco. Do you think of yourself as complex, elegant and chic? Then this is your wine. 14%

'Corriente' Rioja 40.5

2023 Telmo Rodriguez - Tempranillo

Yooheooo! We got another great one for you. And like always, winemaker Telmo doesn't play around with artificial fertilizers and poison on the vineyard. In the nose, we got blackberries, we got vanilla, we got spiciness. In the mouth, we got mild tannins, we got mild acidity, we got a long finish. And then I think we got a winner. 14%

FRANCE 'Hautes-Côtes de Baune' Bourgogne 58

2022 Domaine Florence Cholet - Pinot Noir

This one no joke: it's seriously good. With a light ruby color and elegant aromas, a well structured palate, aged for 8 months in barrels with new oak, this one demands respect. 13%

'Crozes-Hermitage La Matinière' Rhône 48

2021 Domaine Ferraton - Syrah

Single vineyard cuvée, classically made and aged in large barrels, making the tannins super soft. A Syrah the way we like it: red cherries, black berries and raspberries, with a pinch of freshly ground black pepper. This round and flexible wine is our berry favourite, sorry, very favourite, my mistake. 13.5%

'Hautes Pistes' Pays d'Oc 7.5 / 39

2023 Aubert & Mathieu - Pinot Noir

The first scent you'll notice in this Pinot Noir is fresh red fruit, which will be followed by red berries and sour cherries. Freshness due to the height of the vineyard, but body due to the southern location of the vineyard. 13%

'Saint-Émilion Grand Cru' Bordeaux 58

2018 Chateau Haut Ferrandat - Merlot, Cabernet Franc

Classic style Saint Emillion, with dark fruits and plumbs, tobacco and leather notes. 2018 already had quite a bit of bottle aging, so the tannins are slightly reduced and the secondary notes are starting to come through the fruit layer. We call this comfort wine pur sang. 13.5%

- 'LaManarine' Côtes du Rhône 44
- 2022 Domaine la Manarine - Grenache
- Bart's favourite! Well, one of them at least. The winemaker Gilles Casq has a strong preference for Grenache and you can taste that in this wine. A deep scent and colour with sultry fruit. Blackcurrant, nicely complemented by notes of flowers and spices. Full of flavour so take your time. 14%

- 'Belgardo' Terre Alfieri 9.4 / 47
- 2021 Cascina Vengore - Nebbiolo
- Nebbiolo... now why does that sound familiar? Ah, yes, you may know this grape from the famous Barolo and Barbaresco (find the latter one also on our menu!). One theory is that Nebbiolo comes from the Italian word for fog, 'nebbia', referring to the white, powder-like veil on the grapes during harvest season. This Nebbiolo is a spicy one with cinnamon, but with some juicy berry and ripe cherry flavours. And what's that in the background? Some dark chocolate. It has rested in Slovenian oak barrels for 16 months. Resulting in an elegant, fresh wine. 13.5%
- 'DOCG Amarone della Valpolicella' Veneto 79
- 2015 Emilio Fidora - Corvina, Corvinone, Rondinella
- Amarone is made by harvesting fully ripened grapes and leaving them to dry in wooden crates, Fruttaio, for up to five months. These wines are immensely full-bodied and rich, and absolutely delicious. Aged for a period of 42-50 months in big wooden barrels and about 12 months on bottle afterwards. Complex, rich wine with aromas of plums, with spicy notes and dried fruit with a powerful character. 16%
- 'DOC Valpolicella Ripasso' Veneto 44
- 2020 Emilio Fidora - Corvina, Corvinone, Rondinella
- A second fermentation and 24 months in French oak? Yes please! A smooth, Italian wine is always the way to go. Lightly perfumed wine with aromas of red fruit, ripe and dried cherry, and some spices. Full and smooth in the mouth, with a balanced finish where you recognise that characteristically Italian bitter aftertaste. 14%
- 'DOCG Chianti Classico' Toscana 49
- 2020 Renzo Marinai – Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon
- Who doesn't know the chianti classico? Intense flavours, beautifully structured, with a delicate and lingering perfume. A beauty with a full body, dry and packed with flavour: dark fruit, herbs, and sage. Aged for around a year in oak barrels. 13.5%
